Then head to our Meet Edinburgh's Makers online hub to plan your trip and read in depth interviews with our 5 featured producers:

10 Port of Leith Distillery

Distillery
11 Whisky Quay, EH6 6FH

Port of Leith Distillery, the UK's first vertical distillery, sources grain locally and operates a vertical production process. It uses 100% green electricity, organic ingredients, and plastic-free packaging, with a focus on sustainability and innovation in fermentation.

12 Holyrood Distillery

Distillery
19 St Leonard's Lane, EH8 9SH

Holyrood Distillery, one of the first in Edinburgh's city centre in nearly 100 years, crafts whiskies inspired by classic Edinburgh beers. The distillery itself caters to a diverse demographic of drinks lovers, offering whiskies, gins, and rums – one of the few producers of rum in the city.

13 Summerhall Distillery

Distillery
1 Summerhall Square, EH9 1PL

The distillery offers both traditional and experimental products, including Pickering's Gin, based on a 1947 Bombay gin recipe. Customers can explore unique flavours like Brussel sprouts and chocolate mint, while the gin maintains its London dry style.

42 The Wee Vault

Pub/Bar
7A West Maitland Street, EH12 5DS

Vault City's "Modern Sour Beer" blends Edinburgh's rich heritage with innovative brewing, exploring unconventional flavour combinations. Its mixed fermentation base pairs with real fruit, producing small-batch recipes. Available to enjoy from their Portobello and City Centre tap rooms.

16 Secret Garden Distillery

Distillery
32A Old Pentland Road, EH10 7EA

Nestled at the foot of the Pentland Hills, The Secret Garden Distillery embraces a 'seed to sip' philosophy, using seasonal botanicals from its garden. With over 600 varieties, it crafts bold gins like Wild, Rose, Summer, and Pinot Noir, inspired by nature.
